Lyrics: Ashe - Moral Of The Story [Verse 1] So I never really knew you God, I really tried to Blindsided, addicted Thought we could really do this But really I was foolish Hindsight, it's obvious [Pre-Chorus] Talking with my lawyer She said, "Where'd you find this guy?" I said, "Young people fall in love With the wrong people sometimes" [Chorus] Some mistakes get made That's alright, that's okay You can think that you're in love When you're really just in pain Some mistakes get made That's alright, that's okay In the end, it's better for me That's the moral of the story, babe (Oh-oh, oh-oh) (Oh-oh, oh-oh) [Verse 2] It's funny how a memory Turns into a bad dream When running wild turns volatile Remember how we painted our house Just like my grandparents did So romantic, but we fought the whole time Should've seen the signs, yeah [Pre-Chorus] Talking with my mother She said, "Where'd you find this guy?" Said, "Some people fall in love With the wrong people sometimes" [Chorus] Some mistakes get made That's alright, that's okay You can think that you're in love When you're really just in pain Some mistakes get made That's alright, that's okay In the end, it's better for me That's the moral of the story, babe (Oh-oh, oh-oh) (Oh-oh, oh-oh) (Oh-oh, oh-oh) (Oh-oh, oh-oh) [Bridge] They say it's better to have loved and lost Than never to have loved at all That could be a load of shit But I just need to tell you all [Chorus] Some mistakes get made That's alright, that's okay You can think that you're in love When you're really just engaged Some mistakes get made That's alright, that's okay In the end, it's better for me That's the moral of the story Some mistakes get made That's alright, that's okay You can think that you're in love When you're really just in pain Some mistakes get made That's alright, that's okay In the end, it's better for me That's the moral of the story, babe [Outro] (Oh-oh, oh-oh) (Oh-oh, oh-oh) (Oh-oh, oh-oh) (Oh-oh, oh-oh) ..... ### Decision Making During a Crisis

This video challenges most peoples perception of crisis decision making, discusses how decisions are made and describes a new model for making decisions. Feedback from the initial presentation include: 'The session was wonderful and informative.' 'As someone who has used both the military and the JESIP models I found the comparisons made very interesting.' 'Great session - excellent insight on decision making during a crisis' 'I thought it was a very good introduction to Crisis Decision Making. A great deal of thought and learning to take away.'

Decentering the Human Gaia, The Tanner Lectures on Human Values

Dipesh Chakrabarty is the Lawrence A. Kimpton Distinguished Service Professor of History, South Asian Languages and Civilizations, and Law at the University of Chicago. His lecture “Decentering the Human? Gaia” was given on February 19, 2015, as part of the Tanner Lectures on Human Values at the Whitney Humanities Center at Yale. This second of two lectures extends Chakrabarty’s exploration of the tension between human (homo) and life (zoe)-centric perspectives on climate change. Tracing some of the “moods” in which we respond to climate change (skepticism, anger, denial), he argues that these are the symptoms of a homocentric view of environmental crisis. With a zoe-centric perspective on climate change, these moods need no longer constrict our access to the crisis. In the zoe-centric view, he argues, the subject that emerges is dispersed among plants, animals, humans, and other beings and objects. The task then is to figure out how to compose a politics for such a subject, a project that Chakrabarty contends is relevant to his initial discussion of how we might “compose the common” in our sense of “common but differentiated” responsibilities for climate change.
